Protection of information

We are committed to protecting your privacy and we implement a variety of security measures in relation to our processing and transfer of personal data. However, the nature of the internet is such that the data may in some circumstances flow over networks without full security measures and could be accessible to unauthorised persons.

Cookies, Web Beacons, Spotlight Tags

Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to your computer's hard disc for record keeping purposes. Cookies can make the web more useful by storing information about your preferences on particular sites, thus enabling website owners to provide more useful features for their users. They contain no name or address information or any information that will enable anyone to contact you via telephone, e-mail or any other means. Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you would prefer, you can set your browser to disable cookies or inform you when they are set. Information on how to disable cookies can be obtained by referring to either your Operating Systems Manual or your Browser Guide, or by contacting your Internet Service Provider. However, given that we may sometimes use cookies you may not be able to take full advantage of our website if you do disable them.

Kendal Snowsports Club, and associated organisations web pages may contain electronic images, known as web beacons or spotlight tags. These enable Kendal Snowsports Club and associated organisations to count users who have visited certain pages on our website. Web beacons and spotlight tags are not used by us to access your personal information, they are simply a tool we use to analyse which web pages customers view, in an aggregated manner.

Links

Our website may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practises of these sites. This Privacy Policy does not apply to information supplied by you and collected on third parties sites.

Your rights to access your information

You have the right to access the information that the Kendal Snowsports Club holds about you. In order to do this, please make a written application to the Club Secretary, at the following address:-

Club Secretary

Canal Head North
Kendal
